In the middle of one of the most important Natural Parks of Guadalajara we have the villages of the Black Architecture, do you know why is this name? because all buildings are made by slate and thanks of the color of this stone is the name. You can spend all day between the two valeys around the mountain of Ocejón.

What do we visit?

Some of the most famous villages are Campillo de Ranas, Majaelayo or Valverde de los Arroyos, with me you will discover others more and not only the traditional architecture, as well the way of life and nature of this beautiful corner or the highlands of Guadalajara.
